

History of Skin Care and the Use of Cosmetics

1. Kohl was used by the ancient Egyptians as a/an:
  - a) hand cream
  - b) eye make up
  - c) hair coloring
  - d) lip make up
2. The practice of cosmetology has its origin in :
  - a) the Renaissance period
  - b) Greek civilization
  - c) the Roman era
  - d) ancient times
3. The earliest uses of cosmetics have been traced to the ancient:
  - a) Egyptians
  - b) Romans
  - c) Greeks
  - d) Phoenicians
4. The ancient Egyptians darkened brows and lashes with:
  - a) red oxide
  - b) kohl powder
  - c) lamp black.
  - d) henna powder
5. Face shaving was made popular by the:
  - a) Romans
  - b) Hebrews
  - c) Greeks
  - d) Egyptians
6. The period during which Western civilization made the transition from medieval to modern history is known as the:
  - a) Victorian age
  - b) Renaissance
  - c) Middle ages
  - d) Elizabeth Era
7. Oils, lotions, and ointments were used by the ancient Egyptians to keep their:
  - a) skin lubricated
  - b) hair colored
  - c) nails colored
  - d) hair styled
8. Vermillion was used by ancient Greek women as a :
  - a) hair coloring
  - b) skin lubricant
  - c) hair dressing
  - d) lip and cheek coloring
9. Facial masks were first popularized during the:
  - a) Victorian age
  - b) Elizabethan era
  - c) Age of Extravagance
  - d) Renaissance

10. During the Age of Extravagance, face powder was created from:
- a) ground-up egg shell
  - b) poppy seed
  - c) pulverized starch
  - d) borax and ground almond
11. The Victorian age was regarded as a period that was most:
- a) austere and restrictive
  - b) elaborate and extravagant
  - c) colorful and joyous
  - d) carefree and open
12. Queen Victoria discouraged the use of:
- a) makeup
  - b) clothing
  - c) restrictions
  - d) austerity
13. During the 1920's, fashions in clothing and hair-styles were largely influenced by:
- a) industrial development
  - b) historical traditions
  - c) movie stars
  - d) the Renaissance
14. In the 1930's, women were strongly influenced in their fashion and grooming desires by:
- a) history
  - b) economics
  - c) World War I
  - d) the media
15. Africans have been credited with the development of many medicines and grooming materials from substances in the:
- a) tribal rituals
  - b) Renaissance
  - c) environment
  - d) extravagance
16. In the early postwar years, clothing fashions and hair-styles were strongly influenced by :
- a) European designers
  - b) victory celebrations
  - c) war phobia
  - d) military fashions
17. In the 1970's , the trend in hair-styling was for each person to try to:
- a) emulate some actress
  - b) follow the same style
  - c) disregard hair-styling
  - d) personalize her hair-style

18. In the 1970's , makeup for both day and evening wear became more:

a) drab

c) subdued

b) colorful

d) disregarded